CLASS OFFICERS OF 2006

Dear Seniors,

As you ceremoniously walk up to the podium to accept your long anticipated diploma, don't forget to look up at the crowd before you. Let the sea of faces, those of your classmates, friends, teachers, and family, be a reminder of where you come from and of those who helped you get to where you are today. Graduation is an exhilarating experience which creates the feeling of unlimited possibility for the future.

As you step down and return to your seat, remember the lessons you learned at Westborough High School and use them as tools in the next phase of your life. This commencement marks a new beginning – the beginning of a new you. It is easy to go through life and never look back, but such perspective can be very helpful.

A ranger is defined as a wanderer: one acting according to their own law. Don't be afraid to search for your dreams until you have discovered what you initially set out for. Sometimes, what you are trying to find lies within you. Remembering the events of your past may point you in the right direction, as it is during high school that dreams are made. It is okay to get lost in your own journey and exploration – just don't wait until it is too late to realize that you have the rogue spirit and unwavering heart to accomplish great things. A ranger can also be one who acts alone. Be a ranger in the new and endless frontiers you have created and avoid seeking approval of others who are not in touch with what it means to take the reins in life

Together, let's be proud to look back on our days at Westborough High School.

To laugh often and much;
To win the respect of intelligent people
and the affection of children;
To earn the appreciation of honest critics and endure the betrayal of false friends;
To appreciate beauty, to find the best in others
To leave the world a bit better;
To know even one life has breathed easier
because you have lived.
This is to have succeeded.

Farewell Message for Seniors from Our Principal John Pierce

I am proud to have been your principal for these past four years and offer deep thanks to the class of 2006 for your strong presence at WHS.

Your maturity, responsibility, and extraordinary achievements in every quarter of this comprehensive high school have advanced a legacy of excellence and provided an exemplary model for others who follow.

I hope that you have developed, and will long embrace the values of mutual respect, tolerance, cooperation and strong sense of community. Our precious democracy desperately needs informed citizens who will protect and advance the commitment to these ideals.

As you go forth to pursue your individual missions, carry the hopes and dreams that we have for each of you; recognize the precious gift that your life represents, and pledge to use it well. May your promising futures be healthy, happy, and truly rich with meaning and satisfaction. Commit your minds to inquiry, your hearts to compassion, and your lives to the service of others.

Please know that long after you have forgotten us, wherever you are, and whatever you may do, we will be watching for you in this world.

In our wildest dreams, we could not have imagined the JOY you have brought to our lives. Barney, Barbie, dolls and dress-up ..... Boyfriends, cars, work and make-up. You have grown up in what seems like a minute. Always happy ... always smiling, you have made parenting such an easy job for us. Everything we dreamed you would be, you are. We could not be more proud of the young woman you've become.

You have worked very hard and should be proud of all you have accomplished. Now, as the door of your childhood closes and another into adulthood opens, take with you your cherished memories, your hopes and dreams for the future, and the confidence to make your mark on the world. Walk bravely through that door into the exciting world that awaits. We have no doubt that you will make all those hopes and dreams become reality.

We believe in you, and love you more than you will ever know!

Love,
Mom & Dad

The strength to live your adventure,
The courage that sets you apart,
A future unfurled,
Halfway round the world,
We love you with all of our heart.

Mom, Dad, and Stephan

LAURA

We encourage you to accept every challenge
with strength and conviction, with patience and balance.
Be truthful, be gentle and always forgive.
Through compassion you learn how to live and let live.

Take to adventure with your eyes open wide.
To steady the journey, travel often inside.
Seek poetry, passion, beauty and art.
Keep magic and wonder tucked close to your heart.

Celebrate failure with just one more try.
Be mindful of the riches that money can't buy.
Be grateful for wealth, but know what's at stake
And give back to the earth, always, more than you take.

Plant gardens, feed pigeons, walk softly through snow,
When you nurture all life, you help yourself grow.
Be childlike, laugh often, and share every thrill.
Honor the woman, remember the girl.

Then, at the end, as you walk your last mile,
Looking back on your life with a well-deserved smile,
Recall all the faces that helped light the way.
Give thanks for their love and remember this day.

Jen!

Some day your youth
Will seem to be fading fast;
It may seem that, in life,
Today too soon is the past.

But cling to it all.
Remember each passing day
You don't need an excuse
To take some time out to play.

You've worked so hard
and accomplished so much.
We're very proud of you!

Congratulations!

Love always,

The best is yet to come

You're the Best!
We Love you Bunches!
Mom & Dad

I hope you never lose that sense of wonder
You get your fill to eat but always keep that hunger
May you never take one single breath for granted
God forbid love ever leave you empty handed
I hope you still feel small when you stand beside the ocean
Whenever one door closes I hope one more opens
Promise me that you'll give faith a fighting chance
And when you get the chance to sit it out or dance
I hope you dance...I hope you dance
I hope you never fear those mountains in the distance
Never settle for the path of least resistance
Livin' might mean takin' chances, but they're worth takin'
Lovin' might be a mistake but it's worth makin'
Don't let some hell bent heart leave you bitter
When you get close to sellin' out reconsider
Give the heavens above more than just a passing glance
And when you get the chance to sit it out or dance
I hope you dance...I hope you dance
Time is a wheel in constant motion
Tell me who wants to look back on their years and wonder
Where those years have gone
I hope you dance...I hope you dance

I hope you dance

You are Amazing. Go Bear..
I love, Admire and adore you.
Love,
-Ama

Dear Class of 2006:

"Our greatest glory is not in never failing,
but rising up every time we fail."
-Ralph Waldo Emerson

I began at WHS the same year Class of 2006
did, so your class will always hold a special place in my heart. With joy, I have watched you on the proverbial roller coaster of life growing into the young adults who will know
no bounds but those of your own inspiration and motivation. I wish for you all to find the strength within to continue when all looks bleak and the insight to enjoy the pleasure of life in the quiet times. It is with enormous pleasure that I put pen to paper to bid you all hasta luego-I choose not to say adios in hopes that our paths will cross again.

Be who you are and say what you feel, because those who mind don't matter and those who matter don't mind.
–Dr. Seuss

By the time you have reached this page, you have just completed graduation rehearsal where you picked up your cap and gown, a folder of your school records and found out whether you owed the school any money. You've flipped through the colored pages to see if you can find your face in the senior collage and have flashbacks of the senior tie-dye, the first day of senior year, everything to do with Prom and the ever so famous senior superlatives. You've seen our Class Officers, Homecoming, Holiday Ball and the trip to France. You are in awe at the senior pages and are determined to read every single word in every single grid before anyone else.

Yearbook this year was anything but ordinary. We started off the year with MASSIVE computer problems, and struggled to make our first deadline. After we thought all the computer bugs were gone, they only came back to cause more problems and make us really freak out about the next deadline. Once again, the problems were fixed and we were finally on our way. From late November the yearbook staff was on a roll creating pages to help the Class of 2006 remember their senior year. We asked for pictures of friends, siblings and anything that would make our yearbook the best ever. We want to thank everyone who submitted pictures, we used as many as we could! We also want to thank the seniors for handing in their grids and senior pictures on time...well most of you! It made our job a lot easier!

First, Lane would like to apologize now if there are any errors in your grids. She has proofread them several times, so please don't take it personally!! She tried her best to make no typos whether they were legible or not! Secondly, we would like to thank the entire yearbook staff and Ms. Shevory. We would also like to personally thank the first and the BEST "Yearbook Intern," Jamie Herman for all her help in counting money and Holiday Ball.

Lastly, but certainly not least we would like to thank the unbelievable and amazing Class of 2006! We hope everyone likes and appreciates the yearbook, because it is for YOU! We wish all of you the best of luck in the future and hope you all find happiness wherever life takes you. There is no doubt you have left your mark at Westborough High School....CONGRATULATIONS!!
